III. Reading of Communications

A. Administrative Communications

1. Denise Kimball - Rooms at HCS are being emptied and boxes organized for a smooth transition. The staff have done a lot of work for this move and things are going well.
2. Jane Stork – Garden clean-up day went extremely well. Winn reaffirmed how lucky we are to have Mr. Gussey supporting this project and how this is one of the best resources we could have.
3. Liz Mares – Special Education is winding up I.E.P.’s and summer school is off and running.
4. Lori Merrow – This has been a very good year and she appreciates her staff’s hard work as she’s been involved with the District’s Title I and Title II programs.
5. Mary Nadeau – Recognized the many accomplishments of her staff, from Athletics to Future Business Leaders, to the Visual and Performing Arts, Coaches, and herself. Kasie Giallombardo is still in the top 8 for “Teacher of the Year”.
6. Suzanne Nowinski – Great Graduation and still having students coming in to work on high school equivalency test. Program runs all year and the next session begins next week.
7. Trish Hayes – Business Office gets going again at the first of July and things are going well with approval of the budget.

B. Superintendent/Board Communications – None

IV. Reports

A. Superintendent

1. Title 1 FY 18 Initial Plan for District's Use of Funds

Lori Merrow gave an overview of spending in Title 1 and Title II.

Title 1 is mostly staff involved with early intervention i.e., Reading Recovery, Literacy Specialists and Coaches. We also have set-aside projects, such as Summer School and Kindergarten Jump Start.

Title II is Professional Development for all teachers organized by building and District needs utilizing University of Maine Partnerships for Reading Smart, Responsive Classroom Training, etc. Don Mendell asked that we keep an eye on professional development.

2. Update on School Closing and Consolidation Process

Mr. Hammer gave a few more details on consolidation of Hartland, St. Albans, and Somerset Schools. Library books are being sorted, playground is still in phase 1 of construction, and we have been invited to a meeting with Hadley Buker on the 29th.

Mr. Hammer attended many end-of-year activities at the schools, and congratulations for success are extended to all, especially for the student centered Senior Assembly and the Garden Club.
